Good afternoon, Sardis Families. What good news it is that the highway has re-opened in a capacity to enable traffic to move east and west. It's hard to see pictures of the water in the Sumas Flats area and the impact that has had on families and livestock there. Hopefully the water will continue to recede and the flooding doesn't return. As we enter the last week of school before the holiday, please read on for more information about what's happening at Sardis Elementary as we head into week #16:

*There have been a few questions about the hot lunch that was missed on Friday. Deanna is working on arranging a new date and we'll share that with you as soon as it is determined.

*This week we are having a Spirit Day every day of the week! Monday, December 15th is Christmas Character Day, Tuesday, December 16th is Celebrate New Years Day, Wednesday, December 17th is Christmas Card Day (aka Ugly Sweater Day), Thursday, December 18th is Shine Bright Day (red/green/sparkly things), and Friday, December 19th is PJ Day.

*Mrs. Elliott's class will be having a bake sale on Monday, December 15th for students in Grades 3 – 5. All items will be $2 and money raised will support their trip to The Bookman to purchase books!

*Friday, December 19th is our Shandhar Hut hot lunch for those students who have ordered.

*Friday is also the last day of school before the holiday. It's a regular school day, with dismissal at 2:13, and then the students will be off until we return to school on Monday, January 5th.

I hope you all have a wonderful holiday filled with joyful time spent with family and friends. Hopefully it will include some time for rest and relaxation too!

Mrs. Kasper
